

Roxana Torrico, The Finance Project

Roxana Torrico is a Practice Group Director at The Finance Project. Ms. Torrico conducts research and develops technical assistance tools on financing and sustaining programs serving children, youth and families. She has also recently authored a publication entitled, Using CDBG to Support Community-Based Youth Programs. Prior to joining The Finance Project, Ms. Torrico worked as the Director of the Housing and Homelessness department at the Child Welfare League of America (CWLA). There she provided direction and technical assistance specific to the development and knowledge regarding the intersection of foster care and homelessness. Through the coordination of regional, state and local efforts, Ms. Torrico facilitated the integration and collaborations of child welfare and housing/homeless systems. She also has several years experience working with diverse, low-income youth and families in the non-profit and public systems. Ms. Torrico holds a Master of Social Work degree from Virginia Commonwealth University.

Robert LaVallee, The Finance Project

Mr. LaVallee is a program manager and technical assistance provider with more than 15 years of nonprofit management experience. Prior to joining TFP, Mr. LaVallee was the Director of Community and School-Based Initiatives for DotWell in Dorchester MA. He also was Director of Finance and Operations for City On A Hill Charter Public High School in Boston, MA. In these roles Mr. LaVallee developed a deep knowledge of nonprofit financial practices and how they interface with small, mission-driven organizations. He holds a Master of Business Administration degree with a concentration in Non-Profit Management from Boston University and Bachelor of Science in Industrial and Labor Relations from Cornell University.